SYS Series: Shell-Inspired Chairs, Armchairs, and Stools for Modern Spaces

The SYS Series is a versatile collection of chairs, armchairs, and stools, available with customizable options in metal or wood frames. As part of the Archini product line, this chair system combines style, functionality, and adaptability to meet the needs of various spaces.

Inspired by the natural texture of seashells, the SYS Series features a unique embossing technique that creates a smooth, three-dimensional surface. This design not only enhances the visual appeal but also delivers a luxurious tactile experience. Ideal for offices, cafes, restaurants, and lounges, the SYS Series offers a perfect balance of comfort, elegance, and durability, making it a standout choice for modern interior design.
